Manhattan Borough President Candidate

Carlos Manzano Posts Latest Campaign Filing, Will Announce Education Platform

New York -- The Manzano 2005 campaign today submits its latest filing with the Campaign Finance Board, with $233,763 raised from over 1,554 individual contributors. A total of $106,574 qualifies for a four-to-one match under New York City Campaign Finance Board laws. Manzano's campaign for Manhattan Borough President has been notable for its significant number of single contributors, a trend which continued in the filing period just ended.

Manzano 2005 will hold its next major fundraising event on Monday, April 25th at Zanzibar (645 9th Avenue at 45th Street), emceed by civil rights lawyer Tom Shanahan, with special guest former New York City Schools Chancellor Dr. Frank Macchiorola. Manzano will be unveiling his education platform during the event.
