Manhattan Borough President Candidate Carlos Manzano Hits the Campaign Trail With Series Of Appearances

Manzano Finding Manhattan Audiences Receptive

New York – New York State Democratic Committeeman Carlos Manzano has recently made a number of notable local appearances as his campaign for Manhattan Borough President in 2005 continues to gain momentum.

On March 11th, Manzano appeared at the Village Independent Democrats, one of the city's most venerable political clubs, to discuss his candidacy. His visit to VID came on the heels of other appearances, at Stonewall Democrats, and the Hispanic Professionals Network Group. The candidate indicated this week that he's finding audiences receptive to his message.

"It's been a privilege to be able to connect with so many voters at this early stage of my campaign," said Manzano. "I'm finding a great deal of people who are eager to share with me their concerns about the direction of New York and the Borough of Manhattan. To be sure that we are able to hear and understand the diverse voices that inhabit our city, we're going to keep this pace until Election Day 2005, meeting with as many groups and individuals as possible. It's exciting, it's fun, and best of all it allows me to learn firsthand what's happening with a particular community."

Upcoming dates on the Manzano 2005 calendar include an April 22nd Manzano 2005 Renaissance Fundraiser, from 5:30 P.M. - 7:30 P.M. at Zanzibar Bar & Lounge, and a May 10th interview on MNN's (Channel 67) "Speak Up With David Schulte" from 9:30 A.M. - 10 A.M.
